Special to the Press-Citizen

Pat Schmidt and the students at Pat's Learning Annex deliver homemade desserts for the Iowa City Free Lunch as one of their monthly community service projects. Pat's Learning Annex provides educational solutions in a supportive environment for children ages 4-14 in the Iowa City area. Students are, back, from left, Anna Kann, Abigail Bohlen, Sarah Ekholm, Sam Van Willigen; front, Gerrit Van Willigen, Megan Kann, Ethan Kline, Clare Lanaghan, Sabin Hieronymus, Tiarnan Fox and Pat Schmidt, teacher and director. Each week the Press-Citizen runs a group photo in this space. If you have a suggestion, call 337-3181.
