

PLA

April 6, 2006

Where we left off was Diego the playful puppy decided to play fetch with something besides his slime-covered ball.

Now we see the destructive Dino's 4th and most dangerous task yet running on the ball for dear life as a black streak fell from the sky and snatched him to feed of shiny things.

Mean while the dinky Dino nipped a hole in the nest and fell to the muddy wet ground right beside Sam's shoe.

Sam picked up the surprised dino and put him back on his necklace, happy to have his dino back. Other than that, we spent the week taking the ITBS.

Megan and Tiarnan did a wonderful job of reading, playing, and creating in the library.

By Megan (the marvelous) and Ethan (the educated).